NOTES

JCR Voting Amendment

- A discussion concerning the way the JCR mandates its delegates to CUSU Council to vote on motions.
- Currently, if a vote on a CUSU Motion passes the JCR (50%+1 of votes cast in the room), the delegates shall both vote in favour of the motion at the Council.
- This discussion shall be as to whether votes are split between delegates if a motion passes the JCR, but with more than 40% of votes cast against it.
