

JCR Exec Meeting

15/01/2016

Apologies:

None

Key Deadlines

- BUDGET: 20th January, 2017
- WEBSITE UPDATE: 23rd January 2017

Welfare

- UPDATE:
 - College has said no to having a puppy day because animals are not allowed on-site.
 - Sweets have been distributed in pigeonholes
- Actions to be taken:
 - As Medwards is allowed to have animals on-site, Reuben and Katie are working with them to attempt to organise a joint day
 - Budget proposal needs to be finalised after consultation with the welfare sub-committee

Academic Affairs

- Actions to be taken
 - Nivvi is going to send an email to undergraduates, and will organise an hour in the café every week where she will be available for people to come and speak to her

Ethical Affairs

- Ramnik is
 - Organising a Fairtrade formal for Fairtrade week
 - Organising a green competition between corridors, potentially with monetary prizes
 - Making more people aware of the voting for the Fitz charity, so that the charity chosen is one that the student body is passionate about

Stewarding

- College is trying to enforce six stewards (two DJs + four other people) per bop, however not many JCR members are volunteering to steward
- Actions to be taken:
 - Carl is meeting with college to try and reduce the number of required stewards to 3-4 people

Newsletters/Communications

- Carl has tried out a new email format (using GroupSpaces) for his weekly newsletter.
- Actions to be taken:
 - Tara is to send out the first Billy Bulletin before Thursday
 - Any JCR member who would like access to the JCR GroupSpaces account should contact Carl

JCR Stash

- The possibility of getting JCR sashes to wear while stewarding at bops was brought up.
- Actions to be taken:
 - Tara will contact the company providing sweatshirts/hoodies to get samples, and then put in a full order, provided the samples are okay

Target & Access

- Emily is working on the CUSU shadowing scheme for the next three weeks
- She is also planning a presentation and a booklet to go into pigeonholes encouraging Fitz students to go back to their old schools to talk about Fitz and Cambridge.