

- Originally founded to widen access to university : Fitz began in 1869 as a non-collegiate institution providing Cam education to undergrads unable to afford college membership
- Celebrating 50 years a college this year between 1883 and 1896
- The Grove and Darwin's wife : Emma Darwin lived here b, after the death of her husband Charles. The Grove, a regency manor house which once served as Emma Darwin's (the wife of Charles Darwin) primary residence.
- MacCormac Jamieson Prichard designed the Chapel to suggest a floating ship, the hull of which is revealed in American white oak panelling through the fine white concrete.
- Alumnus Singapore guy Lee Kuan Yew, first prime minister of Singapore from 1959 to 1990, making him the longest-serving PM in history
- Tower of Olisa Library highest point in Cambridge?
- The Fitz Sirens, founded over 20 years ago, are Cambridge's oldest all-female a cappella group.
- Outside 'N' staircase is a Ginkgo biloba, a primeval species 270 million years old.
-
- The College's motto is 'ex antiquis et novissimis optima' (the best of the old and the new)
- Fitz mascot is a billygoat. Billy loves to play hide-&-seek. Where in College will we find him next? <https://twitter.com/FitzwilliamColl/status/750268215155101696> a wicker goat that moves around the college

Pc Fraser McKay: <http://imgur.com/ADZLa6u>

<https://www.facebook.com/photo.php?fbid=952412771503527&set=gm.571730923002743&type=3&heater> (ilona?)

- Fitzwilliam was originally founded as a non-collegiate institution for students who couldn't afford college membership, to widen access to the university.
- We are celebrating our 50 years as a college this year! Our motto is 'ex antiquis et novissimis optima' (the best of the old and the new)
- The Grove was Emma Darwin's primary residence from her husband's (Charles Darwin) death until 1896.
- The tower of the Olisa Library is one of the highest points in Cambridge.
- Famous alumni include Lee Kuan Yew, Singapore's first prime minister, who was in office from 1959 to 1990.
- The Fitz mascot is a billygoat, you'll see him everywhere! He's on our rowing blades, the name of our termly magazine, soft animals you can buy from college and even a wicker goat that is regularly moves around college grounds.

Hey! Here's some trivia / pictures you can use for Fitz (sorry it's a bit late)

- Fitzwilliam was originally founded as a non-collegiate institution for students who couldn't afford college membership, to widen access to the university.
- We are celebrating our 50 years as a college this year! Our motto is 'ex antiquis et novissimis optima' (the best of the old and the new)
- The Grove was Emma Darwin's primary residence from her husband's (Charles Darwin) death until 1896.
- The tower of the Olisa Library is one of the highest points in Cambridge.
- Famous alumni include Lee Kuan Yew, Singapore's first prime minister, who was in office from 1959 to 1990.
- The Fitz mascot is a billygoat, you'll see him everywhere! He's on our rowing blades, the name of our termly magazine, soft animals you can buy from college and even a wicker goat that is regularly moved around college grounds.

<http://imgur.com/ADZLa6u>